

Statement of participation

Rostyslav Ivanenko

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Grammar matters

This 8-hour course introduced one approach used to understand how meanings relate systematically to different aspects of grammar.

Issue date: 28 January 2024

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/grammar-matters/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: E304_1

Grammar matters

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/languages/grammar-matters/content-section-0>

Course summary

Grammar matters because, combined with vocabulary choice, it is our main way of making meaning. This free course introduces you to one approach used to understand how meanings relate systematically to different aspects of grammar and shows how this deeper understanding can be applied to make everyday communication more effective.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- understand that grammar can be seen as a flexible and useful tool for meaning making
- understand how grammar and vocabulary choices together create a range of different meanings
- see how an awareness of grammar as a tool for meaning-making can be applied to a range of real world situations in everyday life and professional practice.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Why does grammar matter?

Section 2

What do we mean by 'meaning'?

Section 3

Ideational meaning – talking about what's going on

Section 4

Interpersonal meaning – interacting with and relating to others

Section 5

Textual meaning – organising messages to make sense in context

Section 6

Summary of the types of meaning

Section 7

Grammar in the real world